

Artist profile: Paul Hewson

Paul Hewson grew up in Solihull and trained as a design engineer. He moved to Surrey in the 1980s, where he set up his own kitchen/bathroom design business. At around the same time he began watercolour painting on holiday. Then as his interest grew, he joined the local art club where he had the satisfaction of seeing his first watercolour sold at an exhibition.

Eventually he decided to move to the Isle of Wight, build the Wyke Regis Studio in Porchfield and teach beginners the joy of watercolour and acrylic painting. He now runs weekly art classes in Porchfield and Brading, and regular day workshops. If you would like to see more of his work, or try landscape painting, visit his studio.
