

Artist profile: Becky Samuelson SWA HS

I have been painting for thirty years based from my studio in St Helens on the Isle of Wight. As well as the Isle of Wight Art Club and Bembridge Art Society, I am a member of 'The Society of Women Artists' and 'The Hilliard Society of Miniaturists'. Much of my inspiration comes from our amazing Island countryside with its huge diversity and great natural light providing me with constant inspiration. I enjoy all mediums and explore new ways in which they can be used.

My work has been exhibited widely including annual exhibitions with The Society of Women Artists & Art for Youth held at The Mall Galleries plus many private exhibitions including IOW Open Studio. I am very happy to undertake commissions. Please do contact me to discuss your thoughts and ideas and come and see me in my studio which is open for visits.

I have taught in Adult Education Since 1994, running courses and workshops, and have been a contributor to the Leisure Painter Magazine for many years. I am represented by DDFA Licensing and have also had prints and greeting cards published through Medici Galleries, Noel Tatt and Art Marketing.
