

Artist profile: Jane M Pascoe-Absolom

Art College in 1969-73 Distinction in Art & Design.

First job 1974- Design/illustrator for a London based Fashion House.

By 1981 my fashion designs were being manufactured by Miss Selfridge, and Top Shop.

Brochure Artist for the Crystal Travel Company.

Also worked freelance on an animated Television production, alongside Bob Godfrey of Roobarb & Custard fame.

Barkers of Kensington, full time window sets and props designer.

Joined small art group exhibiting in Kensington, sold a couple of paintings.

One purchased by a then unknown, Lady Diana Spencer.

Although successful my heart was always in fine art. My father sold my first oil painting, which was destined for Australia, of Blue Horses.

In the mid 1980's, I met and painted actor Oliver Tobias, a commission for his mother.

Oliver later purchased another oil painting called, Rime of the Ancient Mariner, story of an Albatross.

Tutor of art - Alton Community Centre.

2009 - Auction of painting "Rise of an Empire-Caesar's Pride"

Helping Yorkshire Wildlife Park bring 14 malnourished Lions out of Romania.

Held Art workshops at the UK Wolf Conservation Trust, Beenham, Nr Reading.

Exhibitions – Lapada Art & Antiques, Berkeley Square, London

The Winter Fine art & Antiques fair, Olympia

Art & Antiques Birmingham N.E.C.

Patchings Art Centre Nottingham

My preferred mediums being oil paint, chalk pastels, and mix- media.

Retired from teaching in Alton 2014, moved to Isle of Wight