

Artist profile: Tony Westmore

Born and based in Cowes, Tony retired from a career in Engineering to devote more time to his Art and Painting, which has been a lifelong interest.

He specialises in Marine and Landscape subjects, working in a traditional way in oils and watercolour and in a semi abstract way in acrylics.

In recent years he has exhibited with the Royal Society of Marine Artist's and the Royal Institute of Painters in Watercolour at The Mall Galleries in London, and was a finalist in The National Open Art Competition.

He has been Teaching locally for fourteen years, and at sea with P&O Cruises, Saga and Fred Olsen Cruise.

His work is to be found in Shipping Company Offices, Naval Wardrooms and private collections worldwide.

Email: tonywestmore1@gmail.com

Websites: www.shippaintings.co.uk

www.painting-gallery.co.uk

