

Painting & Sketching Holiday in France

with Tony Westmore

Enjoy a Painting Holiday in France at The Manoir de Gurson in the Perigord area of France.

I shall be returning to the Manoir again in 2019 for two holidays focusing on Sketching and Painting in water based media.

The holidays will include visits to places of interest nearby, including St. Emilion and Bergerac, where there will be opportunities for both pleasure and sketching.

The student will learn aspects of composition, tonal relationships and colour, together with gaining knowledge on sketching and plein-air painting. We shall sketch whilst out, in preparation to produce paintings from these later. There will also be painting opportunities within the 98 acre grounds of the Manoir and at nearby attractions.

It will be a small group, with one-to-one tuition time enabling students to benefit and improve their skills from the holiday experience.

There will be two holidays, 1st – 8th June 2019, and 31st August – 7th September 2019. The cost will be £695 for accommodation, food and tutoring, and £550 for non-participants sharing a room. Flybe flights available from Southampton to Bergerac daily.
